

COOK STRAIT TEAM

What is the Cook Strait Team?

- The Netball Regions identified a potential gap in the domestic competitions with the introduction of the ANZ Championships and have now formed a new competition, called the 'Lois Muir Challenge'.
- 2012 is the fifth season of the competition and following the changes to the NZ Championships Netball Wellington Region has also shifted the focus for this level of team.
- The purpose of the Challenge competition is to continue to develop our players with the skills, disciplines, knowledge and attitude to succeed at the NZ Championships and at Franchise level in the future.
- In line with our franchise the team will be selected from players from Netball Wellington Region and Netball Tasman with NWR taking responsibility for the administration of the team.
- A team of twelve will be selected by the selection panel to play in the Lois Muir Challenge. Training will be based in Wellington with consideration given to the training needs of the Tasman players involved.

Why?

We want to assist players from our Region(s) to achieve nationally and to bridge the gap to the franchise competition.

What the team will provide...

- Coaching from well-qualified Regional Coaches.
- Opportunity to play with the best development players in the region and opportunities to be tested at a high level of competition.
- An intensive training programme with a qualified trainer including; gym, speed, strength, and aerobic work.
